Dear Ryan,

I hope this message finds you well and in good spirits. I am writing to inform you that it is time to begin our assault on the SSDA.

A you know, when you first defected to our side, and embraced the evil in your heart, you also brought with you hundreds of encrypted SSDA documents. After the a few months of working, our intelligence department has decrypted every single file. Among those files were the profiles of every single active SSDA agent.

After 6 months of scheming and organizing, it is finally time to enact our plan. We will launch assassination missions on each SSDA agent when they least expect it. We have all their current locations, routines, and weaknesses. All thanks to you.

I know you have been dormant, waiting for your chance to truly prove yourself in the field and take down Agent Owl himself. I am pleased to be able to tell you that I have decided to provide you with a strike team of your very own to carry out that particular mission.

Also, when you arrive back at base, I will need to debrief you on some more, say, confidential matters of the mission. The path to taking down the SSDA will be a long and complex one, but I believe we are ready.

Looking forward to hearing back, Ryan.

Yours evilly,

Ember

Dear Ember,

Wonderful! I am so glad to hear that after all this time, I finally get to show myself again...

It will be glorious. I will show them no mercy.

However, I do not need a strike team to take down Agent Owl. I only need myself. I request to be able to go on this mission alone.

Anyways, I suppose we shall discuss this in person. Otherwise, I have a couple more things I want to mention.

Firstly, I have an acquaintance that would be quite good as our head of security. At the very least, he is much more technologically savvy than that idiot you have right now. Who was it? Barney? Billy? Whatever. That idiot is going to get us hacked one day, with how lax with cybersecurity he is. Even / found out his password, and I have only talked to him twice.

Speaking of him, he told me that there is some rising tensions right now amongst the Fang Clan. He might have informed you already, but in case he didn't I'm letting you know. You might want to check in on that. And to stay ahead of the curve, I have a friend, Gabby Tam, who would be perfect as an undercover agent. She already knows a lot about the Fangs. I'll send you her info.

Oh, also, I am terribly sorry to ask this, but I seem to have forgotten my password to get into my FADE account...I thought it was 'acex90'? But that doesn't seem to be working. I guess I'll just ask you in person though...I would ask Sammy but, you know, I can't get into the system to contact him.

Alright, looking forward to destroying the SSDA!

Ryan
