Dear Ryan,

I hope this message finds you well and in good spirits. I am writing to inform you that the assassination mission has been completed. Our small team of undercover agents working at the SSDA have managed to eliminate Agent Owl.

A you know, when we went into hiding, you were required to remain in hiding until further instructions were given. This was necessary for the illusion that you were truly dead.

I am pleased to inform you that the time for your return has come. I am currently recruiting new agents for FADE and awakening our dormant ones, as well as rebuilding our database.

I would like you to make your way back to base as soon as possible, so that I can debrief you on your new mission and provide you with any additional information that is necessary. I understand that you may have some questions and concerns, and I will do my best to address them during the debriefing.

I would like to take this opportunity to express our deepest appreciation for your service to our organization. You have proven yourself to be a valuable asset, and I look forward to continuing our legendary partnership.

Please let me know when you will be returning to base, and I will make the necessary arrangements.

Yours evilly,

Ember

Dear Ember,

Oh. I see. I was under the impression that I would be returning ahead of time, and I would be put on the team to eliminate Agent Owl. I wanted to be the one to kill him.

He died thinking that he had beaten me...

Well, I will be returning in one week's time. I need to make travel arrangements and move out. I wish you had given me more of a heads up.

No matter. I'm sure everything will work out in the end.

At the very least, I am looking forward to taking down the SSDA once and for all. No one will be left to stop us in our wake.

In my time in hiding, I haven't been entirely asleep. I have made some... 'friends' who I am sure would be very keen on joining us. On joining FADE. They truly have some evil tendencies, and I have been waiting for the opportunity to recruit them. I will be sending them ahead of me, please have arrangements ready for them. I even have one that I'm sure would be perfect in the head of security role. At the very least, he is much more technologically savvy than that idiot you have right now. Who was it? Barney? Billy? Whatever. That idiot is going to get us hacked one day, with how lax with cybersecurity he is. Even / found out his password, and I had only talked to him twice.

Finally, before I sign off, I think my return should include a nice refreshing new callsign. The Jade Monkey is old. Its decrepit. It's a harkening to an era where I was one of the good guys. Please notify Sammy to give me a new callsign.

See you in a week.

Ryan
